About the Department of Geography

The department is as old as the college. It started teaching BA general degree and honours course since 2000 and 2003 respectively. Students are admitted in the department as per the University guidelines. Teaching-learning is not just confined to regular class-room lectures. Students are also encouraged to learn on their own and express themselves freely by making them engaged in such activities Group Discussion, seminar and so on. The departmental library has a huge collection of books, magazine and journals and students have free access to it. Excursions and field trips organize by the department regularly. The department has all the latest equipment with proper laboratory for practical exercises. It has 2 Assistant Professors and 1 SACT-I and 2 SACT-II faculty members.

About Kotulpur, Bankura

Kotulpur is a village in the Kotulpur CD block in the Bishnupur subdivision of the Bankura district in the state of West Bengal, India. Kofu Khan of Gar Mandaran, then capital of the local kingdom, was killed in a war, in the Mughal era. Kotulpur was named after him. Kotulpur is located at 23°00'45.0"N 87°35'37.0"E. Physiographically, this area has fertile low lying alluvial plains.[2] It is a predominantly rural area with 90.06% of the population living in rural areas and only 8.94% living in the urban areas.[3] It was a part of the core area of Mallabhum. According to 2011 Census of India, Kotulpur had a total population of 8,483, of which 4,280 (50%) were males and 4,203 (50%) were females. Population below 6 years was 759. The total number of literates in Kotulpur was 6,653 (86.13% of the population over 6 years). Kotulpur police station has jurisdiction over Kotulpur CD block. The area covered is 250.50 km² with a population of 167,547. The headquarters of Kotulpur CD block are located at Kotulpur.

How to reach at Our College

The nearest Kazi Nazrul Islam Airport is 103 km away and nearest rail station Bishnupur is 28 km away. Our college is well connected by Arambagh-Bishnupur roadways (SH).

About Chatra Ramai Pandit Mahavidyalaya

Chatra Ramai Pandit Mahavidyalaya was established on 1st march 2000 and it was the Memorial Day for the people of Bankura district and specifically for the whole (Chatra and surrounding villages) area. It was named after the famous poet and the composer of Shunya Purana, Ramai Pandit and he was the resident of this region. It is the result of a prolonged and painstaking effort of many social workers and local people. The college is situated at village Chatra, Krishnanagar mouja of district Bankura with an ideal natural ambience. It is located at a distance of 27 km from Bishnupur and 15 km from Kotulpur. Chatra Ramai Pandit Mahavidyalaya is located in the outskirts of a grove of Eucalyptus and Seal trees in the Lego Gram Panchayat in the Kotulpur Block under the Bishnupur Subdivision of the District of Bankura. The budding institution is the fruit of industry given by some local education enthusiasts who sacrificed their valuable time in raising contributions from people of various ranks and classes belonging to the locality with the aim of providing higher education to the students of a region neglected and backward, many of whom were first generation learners. The institution started in a single building with only seven students. Gradually, with aids from the State Government and local bodies the building expanded with its own laboratory and library facilities. Presently, it has an area of 11.3 acres with two separate two-storied buildings, it has a playground flanked on all sides by Eucalyptus trees. This State Government aided institution is registered on 17th August, 2007 under Sections 2 (f) and 12 (B) of the UGC Act of 1956. The college is affiliated under the Burdwan University from 2000 to 2016 and from 2107 it is affiliated under the Bankura University.

Report

The students of the 5th semester, English Honours were shown the movie "Romeo + Juliet" (dir. - Baz Luhrmann), as a part of their curriculum "Literature and Cinema" (Discipline Specific Elective Course) on 1/9/2022 in the ICT room. 8 students were present for the screening. The movie was shown to make the students familiarise with the theory of cinematic adaptation. The screening was followed by a comparative discussion on Shakespeare's "Romeo and Julie" and Luhrmann's modernization of the classic. The students took active participation in the discussion by asking questions and articulating their ideas and opinions.
